Citizen Advocacy

Easy read

Volunteering in Western Australia

1.5 million people in Western Australia give their time to help others.

Volunteering keeps WA strong and helps local communities.

Volunteering is about being flexible, including everyone and helping in your local area.

Volunteering in 2026

- Many helpers:
  65% of people in WA volunteer every year

- Young people:
  Over 78% of people under 25 help out

- Helping out your own way:
  More people choose simple tasks like helping a neighbour

Ways to Volunteer

- Quick help:
  Short tasks that take less than 30 minute

- Share your skills:
  Using your work skills to help out

- Work support:
  Many WA mining and tech companies give workers paid time off to volunteer

Disability and Inclusion

Volunteering with people with a disability is about doing things together.

- Social connection:
  Helping with fun inclusive activities

- Mentorship:
  Helping social groups

- Advocacy:
  Building a one-on-one friendship through Citizen Advocacy

If you want any more information, you can contact Citizen Advocacy.

You can call (08) 9445 9991.

Or you can email admin@capw.org.au